

5 Reasons to Work for Sturdy Products

Below are 5 reasons to work for Sturdy Products.

Join a Growing Company

- At Sturdy, our mission is to create sustainable, reliable solutions for our customers. We all rely on quality goods being available when and where we want them. Sturdy serves nearly every part of Ireland ; U.K. & Middle East.
- As a family-owned business with over 30 employees, we combine a clear strategy for sustainable growth with a sound financial basis.

Progression

- We offer jobs for workers (manufacturing operatives forklift operators, general operatives), professionals (sales, customer service, accounting, research & design) and management positions.
- We allow our employees to grow and move forward: operatives who have become chargehands, customer service employees who are now in management positions.
- We offer on-the-job training and continued education that can definitely take you places in our company.

Values & Culture

- Our values are being successful in new product development we have tremendous versatility and demands hard work, or because we know keeping our customers happy is paramount.
- All we know is that we are proud to call ourselves innovators and that we have a passion for our business that we are eager to share with new recruits.

Variety of Clients

- We work with a variety of clients in a wide variety of industries. This means you could be dealing with Local Authorities one day, laundry companies the next, farming industry another day, and so much more.
- As a Plastic Manufacturer professional, you may be working with a start-up company or a Fortune 100 company. You have an opportunity to learn about diverse industries, companies and cultures which definitely helps to keep things interesting.

Diverse Workforce

- Our products sell all over Ireland & UK which means we work with diverse workforce. We have opportunities for all nationalities who are willing to help us move forward.
- We can help you gain international experience, develop relationships around the globe, and possibly offer an opportunity to work in other countries.

